

Retirement of ESE President Dag Ørstavik

Professor Dag Ørstavik steps-down after two successful years as ESE President.

Dag Ørstavik stepped-down as ESE President at the end of 2019 after serving two very successful years in office. Dag oversaw the ongoing development of the Society during which several major changes took place, for example:

- The creation of the Chief Operating Officer role;
- The creation of a new Benefits of Endodontics Committee;
- The refresh of the Society's Constitution & Bylaws;
- Changes to the membership of the General Assembly.

The members of the Executive Board wish to thank Dag for his leadership, calmness, logical thinking and patience during what was a period of substantial change for the Society.
